Gurtej Singh Bijral

For the last 3 years, I've had a great experience with SAMIL. The open way of their working in comparison to market trends also has a great impact on customers. Transparency and security of vehicles standing over there and their records were always up to the mark.

The membership facilities are extraordinary. I am getting privileged customer services such as no waiting in the queues, viewing, watching and participating in all auctions by one click, from my home. This is one of the best advantages of this membership programme.

Shakeel Shakebade

Being a BidClub member, I've received so many exclusive opportunities, rewards and the privilege of being the first priority. Due to COVID 19, the market got down but SAMIL helped me get back on my feet. They offered a loan by trade advance and to help me buy more vehicles.
